“They’ve commissioned some art. But what’s it all about? What kind of stuff do they like? Let’s talk to them and find out! Art For Lawyers is a nine-minute animated documentary made in collaboration with the employees of an international law firm in The City. The film is a culmination of a series of conversations and workshops, and also features drawings made by staff members in the canteen, on their lunch break last year.”

Film by Rory Waudby Tolley (<https://rorywt.com>), U.K., 2017.
